THINGS THAT ARE NOT AUTOMATIC INDICATORS

- Client's desire to "get the case dismissed"
- Active or past reported addiction to drugs or alcohol
- Low intellectual functioning
- Self-reporting of mental illness

WHAT A DEFENSE ATTORNEY SHOULD DO

- Counsel with the Client!
 - At least a one-year program and most participants take longer than twelve months
 - Requires the participant to be drug and alcohol free for the entire duration, including CBD products and some other "legal" products
 - Requires drug and alcohol testing, but we can provide supportive services to remain sober
 - Requires participant to waive their right to a speedy trial
- Fill out current Referral Form and send to District Attorney's office
- Inform client that someone from Bert Nash may be calling to set up an evaluation and that evaluation needs to be done ASAP

POTENTIAL REASONS FOR REJECTION

- Defendant is not interested in participating after hearing the requirements
- Defendant does not meet the criteria for SMI or SPMI
- Defendant is not a Douglas County resident
- The crime does not relate to mental illness or there is no connection between the mental illness and the charged crime (example: shoplifting and a diagnosis of anxiety)
- Drug use or addiction interferes substantially, making the defendant unable to participate in the program or is the primary reason for the criminal charges
- Public Safety Risk or High Risk of Violent Re-offense (DA's office determination)
- Disqualifying criminal history
- Pending holds and unresolved matters
- Not competent
- Does not meet minimum criteria (example: under age 18, sole charge is DUI)

QUALITIES OF A SUCCESSFUL PARTICIPANT
